

JOB POSTING

Job Opening Date: March 5, 2019

Job Closing Date: When position is filled

Job Title: Regional Manager of Environmental Health & Safety

Department: Safety

Job Location: Long Beach, Calif.

Contact: Human Resources Dept.

Qualifications & Skills Required

Safety

- Provides each operation with necessary regulatory information and depth in order to ensure regulatory compliance & safety commitment.
- Provides required training for the team to operate safely, productively and to reduce injuries and property damage.
- Provides support through research, training and audit process review & feedback.
- Develops proactive strategies, programs and initiatives to reduce work related injuries and accidents within area of responsibility.
- Nurturing relationships to influence safety behaviors, increase regulatory compliance while reducing worker injuries within area of responsibility.
- Ability to maintain engagement from leadership and front line workers to promote behavior based cultural shifts.
- Develop safety performance trend reports, safety performance reports by site for Nautilus International Holding Corporation.
- Project safety management skills and time management skills for collaborating and building three year plans.

Training

- Provides required training to staff, as well as longshore labor, in order to remain compliant with regulatory agency requirements, to remain contractually compliant with the collective bargaining agreements and to remain competitive in the industry.

Audits

- Conducts regular safety & security audits in all Nautilus business lines, as required by regulatory bodies and corporate EHS policy.
- Carries various safety & security spot checks at sites to ensure continual compliance.

Networking

- Networks with industry professionals and peers to bring Nautilus to the forefront of the industry and to solicit positive exposure.

Continued Education

- Keeps abreast of the current trends and cutting edge technology by actively attending continued education classes.
- Continues to obtain additional education, certifications in the federal OSHA regulatory discipline and environmental discipline.

Outside Meetings

- Attends various local, state or Federal agency meetings, as needed.

Education and/or Work Experience

- Equivalent of a Bachelor's Degree in Business or Maritime and 10+ years progressively responsible, related experience.
- Cruise industry or maritime transportation industry experience.
- Maritime training, ASP/CSP or advanced degree preferred.
- Strong leadership & supervisory experience.
- Experience in maritime safety & health and environmental compliance preferred.
- Competent working knowledge of Microsoft Office suite: Excel, Word, Powerpoint.
- Ability to independently learn Incident Reporting System and Learning Management System.

Please email resumes to hrdept@metroports.com